Special Education Teacher Roles & Journify Expectations

Opening Discussion

Every student learns differently and brings unique strengths and needs to the classroom. Think about your classroom and the ways you've adjusted your instruction to help all students succeed.

What are some ways you have differentiated instruction without even realizing it?

_____

_____

_____

How did those adjustments help students be successful?

_____

Confidentiality Non-Negotiables

- Access student information only for legitimate educational purposes.
- Keep IEP-at-a-Glance documents secure.
- Do not enter personally identifiable student information into public AI tools.
- Use Journify's built-in AI tools when adapting student materials.

Which expectation do you think is the easiest to overlook during a busy school day?

- Select My Students.
- Select the student's name.
- Review the student profile.
- Review IEP goals and accommodations.
- For today's activity, focus on academic and functional IEP goals rather than transition goals.

Track Progress: Work Samples

When to use it: To upload evidence connected to a student's IEP goal

Document how often: Upload 2 work samples per student, per grading period.

- Select Track Progress – IEP Goal Progress Tab.
- Select the student.
- Click Go to Simplified Upload.
- Upload by QR code (recommended) or manual upload.

Track Progress: Accommodations

When to use it: To record accommodations that were provided, used, or refused.

Document how often: 1 assessment entry and 3 daily classroom accommodation entries per student, per grading period.

- Select Track Progress, then select the Accommodations tab.
- Click Log Accommodation.
- Select the student, choose the accommodation, and mark its status as provided/used or refused.
- Enter the date.
- Create a separate entry for refused accommodations.

Generate Interventions

When to use it: To create or adapt instructional materials using Journify's built-in AI.

- Select Generate Interventions.
- Select the student.
- Select the goal that best aligns with the assignment.
- Click Generate, enter the needed specifications, and create the material.
- Review and adjust the material.
- Export the final version.
